

60-Day Check-in

Please return to jfogg@UnitedWayDM.org

Approximately 60 days ago, a banker visited your classroom and gave a lesson about the importance of saving. Please help us gauge the value of that lesson as time has passed.

1. Have you discussed the lesson or anything about saving since the visit? ___yes ___no
2. Have the students talked about savings or the visit? ___yes ___no ___don't know
3. Did students get excited about the piggy banks? ___yes ___no ___didn't have any
4. Do you think students discussed the lesson with parents? ___yes ___no ___probably
5. Do you think any students have been to a bank as a result of the visit? ___yes ___no
6. Do you think any students have opened bank accounts as a result? ___yes ___no
7. Did you use the vocabulary words to extend the lesson? ___yes ___no ___plan to 8. Have you taught any other money management concepts? ___yes ___no ___plan to
9. If yes, what have you taught? _____
10. Have you visited the website, www.EveryoneCanSave.org? ___yes ___no
11. Would you want a similar visit from a banker next year? ___yes ___no ___not sure
12. What else would you like us to provide in order for you to teach about saving?

Thank you! Questions? Call Jane Fogg, 515-246-6605
Email to jfogg@UnitedWayDM.org or mail to Jane Fogg, United Way,
1111 Ninth St., Suite 100, Des Moines, IA 50314

United Way of Central Iowa